§ 872.601 Amount of insurance.

(a) Each multiple of additional optional insurance continued during receipt of annuity or compensation reduces by two percent a month effective at the beginning of the second calendar month after (1) the date the insurance would otherwise have stopped, or (2) the insured's 65th birthday, whichever is later. At 12:00 PM on the day preceding the 50th reduction the insurance stops, with no extension of coverage or right of conversion.

(b) The number of multiples of additional optional insurance which may be continued during receipt of annuity or compensation is the smallest number of multiples in force during the applicable period of service required for continuation of the additional optional insurance during receipt of annuity or compensation payments.

(c) Judges retiring under 28 U.S.C. 371(a) and (b), 28 U.S.C. 372(a), and 26 U.S.C. 7447 are considered employees under the Federal Employees' Group Life Insurance law. Insurance for these judges continues without interruption or diminution upon retirement. The amount of additional optional insurance for a judge who elects to receive compensation in lieu of annuity will be computed in accordance with paragraph (a) of this section.

§ 872.603 Waiver or suspension of annuity or compensation.

(a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, when annuity or compensation is waived or suspended, additional optional insurance continues. When payment of the annuity or compensation is resumed, the paying office shall withhold the full cost of the insurance for the period of waiver or suspension during which the person is under age 65.

(b) If suspension of annuity or compensation is because of reemployment, the reemploying office shall withhold the full cost of the insurance during each pay period of reemployment.

§ 872.604 Reemployed annuitants.

(a)(1) An annuitant appointed to a position in which he/she is not excluded from basic insurance by law or regulation is eligible for additional optional insurance as an employee, unless he/she has on file an uncanceled waiver of basic insurance or declination of additional optional insurance. (2) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, the additional optional insurance acquired as an employee stops, with no 31-day extension or right of conversion, on the date reemployment terminates and any suspended additional optional insurance which remains in force after applicable monthly reductions after age 65 (and corresponding annuity withholdings, if any) is reinstated on the day following termination of the reemployment.

(b) Additional optional insurance acquired during reemployment may be continued after termination of the reemployment if the annuitant:
